London modern metal outfit Electron continue their journey upward with their most intimate and emotionally exposed release to date. Known for blending crushing heaviness with cinematic atmosphere and vulnerability, the band step deeper into darker territory with their new single 'Trap', pushing both their sound and storytelling further than ever before.

ELECTRON's previous singles, 'You Betray' and 'Lie To Me', picked up much acclaim and acquired powerful traction within the UK scene. The band have received acclaimed publications like Total Rock, PowerPlay Magazine, BraveWords, Kerrang!, Heavy Magazine, Clash and many more. With an increased following, live dates promoting 'Trap' on the horizon, Electron are set to shine brightly in 2026.

The new single - 'Trap' - is a haunting, hypnotic descent into desire, control, and emotional captivity. Set in a decayed, forgotten room, the song follows a magnetic, yet broken woman caught between intoxication and suffocation, craving freedom while bound by obsession.

Dark, atmospheric, and painfully intimate, 'Trap' explores the moment where passion becomes a prison and love turns into a cage - a seductive nightmare of vulnerability, loss of self, and the quiet fight to breathe again.

'Trap' marks a bold and unsettling new chapter for Electron, revealing a band unafraid to confront emotional darkness in its most seductive and destructive forms. It's a poignant, visceral experience that lingers long after the final note; and a powerful statement of artistic growth from one of London's most compelling modern metal acts.

Trap is out February 13th, 2026.
